

Masha Ibeschitz-Manderbach

Masha Ibeschitz-Manderbach is a Managing Partner of the Management Development Institute (MDI) in Austria. She has held previous positions in the corporate world as a Project Manager in Marketing and a Senior Manager of Corporate Business and Product Development, and in the academic world as a Lecturer.

Masha specializes in leadership, management, self and time management, facilitation, team building, coaching, communication, change management, inter-cultural management, and organizational development.

She earned her academic degree in Business Administration from the University of Vienna and holds numerous trainer certifications, including NLP Master Trainer, DiSC, and CAPTain.

Kirkpatrick
Partners

The Standard for Leveraging and Validating Talent Investments™